SUMMER FUN & LEARNING FOR FAMILIES WITH YOUNG CHILDREN

Bolton, ON – Come in from the heat for some summer fun and learning at the Caledon Parent-Child Centre (CPCC) at various locations in Bolton and Caledon beginning the week of June 29th. Parents and caregivers with young children can take part in a wide variety of free programs and activities. Group sizes may be limited, therefore, daily sign-in will take place on a first come, first served basis. Programs offered this summer include: Infant Mother Goose, Play & Learn, Creative Kids, Math is Everywhere, and Kindergarten Here I Come.

Family Time drop-in is available six days a week at the main site in Bolton and the mobile unit will be visiting parks throughout rural Caledon all summer long. For more information on the Summer Schedule including detailed program descriptions, visit www.cp-cc.org or call 905-857-0090.

The CPCC/OEYC is a non-profit community service organization that provides support, resources, and education that strengthen families and promote the optimal development of children. Parents and caregivers with young children can access a variety of free child development programs, family support services and helpful information on parenting.
